Tamam Kahn, poet, editor, and conference speaker will read poetry and tell stories from her new book: UNTOLD. This event offers a new, vital and positive view of the women close to Prophet Muhammad. In her book, Untold, she gives an opportunity to look at the women close to Muhammad at the time when Islam meant "the way of peace," not a religion; and guides us deeper into who they might have been. This book incorporates 10 years of research, but catches moments in each woman's life through poems, woven throughout the stories.

She has taught for the Sufi Ruhaniat International (SRI) for over twenty-five years, and with her husband the Pir, or the head of SRI, Pir Shabda Kahn, has led pilgrims to sacred sites in Morocco, India, Syria, and Andalusia.

Untold: A History of the Wives... ..is a riveting hen-house of delight, a book based on subjects our society finds endlessly confusing – marriage, matriarchy and Muhammad. Finally, we get to meet the first women of Islam. - Coleman Barks

Untold frees the authentic voice of these women.....this book is part of a larger movement that seeks to reclaim the voices of women prophets, and saints of all traditions. - Dr. Neil Douglas Klotz

Directions:

From Harmony and Boardwalk, go south on boardwalk about 1/3 mile - past Sam's Club and past an apartment complex and over a speed bump. Then turn left where you see a big stone sign "5000 Boardwalk Drive". Follow the numbers around to #13.

Parking:

Our neighborhood wants parking to be in designated parking spaces. There are about 5 spaces just before #11 and 5 just past #13, and about 15 at the end of the street, just past #18. You can also park in #13 driveway.
